EVENT SUMMARY

中国SODA开源社区 + NextArch基金会 智能数据管理MEETUP

9.26 上海苏宁环球万怡酒店

参与单位:

SODA China Meetup, organized by SODA Foundation and NextArch Foundation, took place in Shanghai, China, on September 26. We had 30 in-person attendees joining us for an afternoon of seven information-packed sessions focused on data and storage innovations involving cloud native, hybrid multi-cloud, unstructured data management, and AI.

This event brought principal engineers and leaders from OPPO, NetEase, Intel, Tencent, China Mobile, China Unicom, Futurewei, RESNICS, Veeam, Curve, OpenTenBase, and CubeFS together to discuss use cases and challenges related to data management faced by large end customers around the world.

Opening by Steven Tan,
SODA Foundation Chair / SVP & CTO Cloud Solution, Futurewei.
